Random Acts of Civility in Northville, Michigan

Little things we do during the day can make our community stronger so we can inspire others to pay those kindnesses forward.

Make up your own Random Acts of Civility --see list below for ideas! Capture your Kindness Acts on social media with #choose2Bkind. Be part of our year of kindness in Northville!

NEED IDEAS FOR ACTS OF CIVILITY? HERE'S A FEW:

- Use social media to send a compliment to three people right now.
- Write a thank you note to a teacher who made a difference in your life.
- Create a playlist on Spotify for a friend to let them know you are thinking of them.
- Give someone a hug, just because!
- Hide a note with a positive message inside the next library book you return so that the next person who checks it out will find it!
- Hold the door for someone.
- Have a garden? Share some veggies or flowers with a neighbor.
- Purchase some supplies from an animal rescue organization's wish list and drop them off on your way home from the store.
- Organize a clean up party at a local park, pond or river area.
- Help a neighbor take out the trash, mow their lawn, or shovel their walk.
- Do the dishes, vacuum or dust even if it's not your turn to do that chore.
- Make a batch of cookies or muffins and deliver them to your local police station or firehouse.
- Cook a meal or do a load of laundry for a friend who is going through a difficult time.
- Let the person who seems rushed cut in front of you.
- Pay the toll for the car behind you.
- Keep an extra umbrella at work or school and let someone borrow it on a rainy day.
- Send a care package to a service member.
- Bring a welcome gift to new neighbors.
- Give someone a copy of a book you think they would like.
- Write positive messages on sticky notes and leave them on the mirrors in public restrooms.
- Put encouraging notes under the windshield wipers of parked cars.
- Offer change when the person in front of you at the register comes up short.
