

Northville District Library
Policy on
Public Relations

The Library strives to actively promote its collections, services, and events using a variety of communication methods. Expanding its base of support among residents is a primary objective of public relations efforts. To this end the Library allocates staff time and resources. The Library works to maintain its reputation as a nonpartisan, nonsectarian, non-biased institution for the sharing and exchange of ideas.

The Library cooperates as fully as possible with other community groups in meeting the needs of the community,
