Statistics: The circulation statistics and the door count for the month of December 2010 are down from last December, which is typically the slowest month of the year. The snowy weather this year has contributed to these lower numbers. Even Database accesses were down.

Youth Programming: There were 11 Library Programs for Youth this month, with 300 children attending. The Animals of the Rain Forest Program drew a crowd of 124.

Adult Programming: Two Book Discussions held since the last Board meeting had a total of 35 participants. The Foreign Films (2) hosted a total of 74 viewers. There were 21 individuals who received tutoring on the computers and/or attended Internet Classes this past month. The 2 Investment Programs had an attendance of 57. Our Facebook presence now has 225 followers and 95 follow us on Twitter.

Teen: Librarians are visiting the Middle Schools to promote the Battle of the Books, which is scheduled for April 6 at Northville High School. The first managers meeting was held on January 25, with a second meeting scheduled for February 16.

Endowment: Julie reported that 58 donations of $100 or more have been received through The Roots of Wonder incentive campaign. An evening to recognize the donors and distribute the signed and numbered prints is scheduled for Sunday evening, January 30. The event, Night of Wonder, will provide an opportunity to meet and greet our generous donors and will feature wine, cheese, and desserts from local bakery Sweet 220.

Staff: Julie reported that Youth Librarians attended an ALA Webinar "Battling Bullying with Books." Adult Librarians attended a Webinar on Learning Express. Julie displayed the very nice article about Al Smitley's retirement from the Library in the Northville Record. She also reported that Denise LaMotte extended her employment through the end of January to assist with the serials projects. Interviews to fill the Head of Technical Services position have been completed and a decision will be made shortly. Interviews will then be scheduled to fill the Part-time Reference Clerk position, and following that, interviews will be scheduled for the Part-time Adult Services Librarian position that was formerly held by Mike Postula.
