The minutes were APPROVED.

IV. President's Report – Martha Nork

- A. New Friends members were introduced, Kathy O'Brien and Stephanie Seyfarth.
- B. A new table cover with the FNDL logo on the front, was brought for discussion. It will match the library design, and will cost $211.00
It was voted to purchase a teal colored cover with navy lettering.
- B. The Friends of Michigan Library fall workshop will be held at the Delta Township District Library in Lansing. It is Thursday, October 4th at 9:30 A.M.
Cost is $25.00 per person.
- C. We received a $1,500.00 donation in July from long-time supporter, Judith Costigan.
- D. Martha needs someone to attend the October 25th Library Trustees meeting.
Linda Bolam volunteered to attend for her.

V. Library Director's Report – Dorie Freebury for Anne Mannisto

- A. Circulation statistics for June: 38,006, down 12%. For July: 42,093, down 8%, and for August: 39,062, down 10%.
- B. Downloading of ebooks and audiobooks is consistently up from 2 to 8%.
- C. The library has added a new online resource called Kanopy, which offers our library users access to a wide array of over 30,000 films, including foreign, classic, and documentaries, through streaming – titles of unique social and cultural value from The Criterion Collection, The Great Courses, Media Education Foundation, and thousands of independent filmmakers. Available on your iOS, Android, Kindle Fire, Apple TV, Roku, Chromecast or use an HDMI Cable to stream from your computer. Stream five videos per month with no holds, waitlists or returns.
- D. Interlibrary Loan through MeLCat is again available.
- E. Summer Reading Program registrants: Adult – 282, Teen – 203, Youth – 735.
- F. Many programs over the summer months. In August alone, Teen had 4 events with 99 attendees, Youth had 4 programs with 265, and Adult had 4 events with 71 attending.
- G. Our Just Desserts event to honor our volunteers was held on August 15th, with about 50 people attending.
- H. Facilities
  - The Library is negotiating a Shared Use Agreement with Parks and Recreation, who holds the lease on the parking lot along with the Community Center. When the agreement is finished, we will do either a full or partial repair of the lot, depending on the availability of the paving company.
  - New drinking fountains have been added to each floor.
  - The entire Staff Workroom on the lower level was renovated. This has given us better use of the existing space.
  - The six study rooms (up from 4) have reopened to the public and are in regular use on a first-come, first-serve basis, with 2-hour limits. New tables and chairs have arrived for these rooms.
  - The Friends Community Room is having finishing touches added, such as new Clarus dry erase/magnetic board, and eventually a slat wall for hanging signs/brochures, as well as Friends recognition plaque. Signage is being worked on for all the new areas. Six new tables should be coming soon. Public can start booking the room in early October. PR Coordinator, Stacy Lorence, is now the contact for booking the meeting rooms.

There will be a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on October 21st at 2 P.M., during the Cider on Sunday event. Invitations will be sent to all officials of Township and City, Builder, and Architect. Jeff Noble, the state representative who helped obtain the grant for the Library to help pay for the room, will also be attending.

At this event, the Library will kick off the Choose Civility campaign. This is part of a nationwide initiative in some libraries to foster more civil interactions in the public sphere and position the public library as a model of civility. Mission: Valuing diversity we choose respect, compassion, empathy, and inclusiveness as essential to our quality of life. NDL will support the CC initiative by offering booklists for children, teens, and adults, informational bookmarks about CC, bumper sticker magnets, a monthly kindness calendar and green t-shirts featuring the CC logo for staff to wear. Visit Choosecivility.org for more information.

The Northville Garden Club, who maintains the garden along the east side of the building, is extending a similar garden along the new addition.

- H. The Annual “Community Reads” has started, featuring The Poisoned City, by Anna Clark. The author will be speaking in Wixom on Nov. 9th.
- I. First time event: The Bookwalk in the Park, coordinated by youth librarians, Laura and Julie and PR coordinator, Stacy Lorence, will begin Sun. Sept. 23rd and run for two weeks through October 7th. Refreshments and a raffle of the book, Bear’s New Friend by Karma Wilson and a stuffed bear are part of the event.
- J. A committee is working on the search for a new Library Director.

VI. Secretary’s Report – Linda Bolam

- A. A letter of appreciation from Dorie Freebury, Head of Youth Services, was read. She thanked the Friends for their support in making the Youth Summer Reading Program a great success.

VII. Treasurer’s Report – Martha Nork for Scott Frush

- A. As of August 31, 2018 there are total assets of $93,137.96 in our checking account and certificates of deposit.
- B. The total Year-to-date income is $25,975.11, which is 91% of our 2018 budget. The total Year-to-date expenses are $20,705.70, which is 58% of budgeted amount for the year.
- C. The report was APPROVED.
- D. Scott proposed that we not move cash into a new CD until after the September disbursement of $40,000 to the library for naming rights for the new community meeting room. This will also allow us to know what is trending in the money market before moving any matured CD funds. The matter will be considered at the October Friends meeting. Scott will be asked to include the interest rates on our CD funds on future Treasurer’s Reports.
- E. $660.00 was APPROVED for the purchase of plants and bulbs for the flowerbed installation surrounding the new building addition.
- F. Martha Nork presented a check for $40,000 to the library for the furniture and equipment for the new community meeting room.
