Achieve Your Funding Goals with Candid, Available for In-Library Use at NDL

Northville, MI: Are you seeking funding for a nonprofit initiative, academic research, artistic endeavor, or personal project? Northville District Library offers in-library access to Candid's Foundation Directory Online – Professional, a premier resource for identifying potential funders and grant opportunities.

Candid is a leading source of information on philanthropy, nonprofits, and grantmaking. Their comprehensive database includes over 240,000 profiles of foundations, corporate giving programs, and grantmaking public charities, providing detailed insights into funding interests, application guidelines, and past grant recipients. Access to this information has helped numerous organizations reduce the time they spend on applying for grants. Candid is also working with Social Impact Commons to make a database of Fiscally sponsored projects. Finding funding for major social projects has become easier because of Candid.
